daisycakesplush Hey guys so I know it's been a while since I've shown the process of Loona and that is because I was trying to finish her to go to #kamiconhai and recently today I was able to finish her and go there and I met so many amazing people it was so much fun I even was able to meet my friend @i_am_foodel after 3 years of trying to meet him and this has to be the best day of my life not to mention I got to meet Richard Horvitz and he signed my Moxie plush this has to be the best day of my life and I hope everyone is having a wonderful day or night and keep blooming 🥰 dragonbloodlust I had a great time at @kamiconhai ! I participated and won the cosplay contest in my category! Everyone there was so sweet and talented, I'm so glad I got to meet and compete with them ❤️ I'm currently working on the next cosplay and can't wait to enter it into a contest as well! I am quite sore and exhausted still after the con but will be back to crafting soon 🥰
